

THEY'D PAY MORE TO SEE A BATTLE LIKE THIS ONE—JACK BARLEYCORN VS. JACK DEMPSEY ONE PUNCH DECIDES BATTLE FOR DUNDEE

Johnny Stuns Moran With Blow in Last Round for Victory; Brown Batters Rear

PATSY WALLACE WINS

By JAMES S. CAROLAN WELL, it's the old case of one punch winning a fight...

When came the big smash. Pal, in his colorless, aggressive manner, languidly led with his left, missed, then received. It was a very disarming fight...

Harry Kid Brown and Charley Rear put on a battle that was the first of the night. Rear ran true to his name, trailing at the finish, but it was a fight all the way.

Rear has no one to blame but himself for making a fight of it from the start. As soon as the opening gong sounded Charley made a grab for Harry's extended right, playfully tossed it to one side and, violating the rules, started war by smashing a right to the face.

Rear refused to stay beaten, and Brown only won the second round by a shade. Charley was swinging well in the next two, and earned an even break. He worked in the two concluding sessions and took a nice battering.

Brown was a much improved boy. He hit hard, boxed cleverly and took chances. It was Brown's best showing of the season. He had to be good to beat Rear last night. Phil Glassman is in Brown's corner.

Doc Cutch was all smiles. Patsy Wallace came through a winner over Jack Eile after six rounds of slugging. Patsy started with a damaged left eye and finished with one. Eile opened with an unmarked map, but completed the evening's work by taking a battered, bleeding face to his dressing room.

Wallace fought a brainy fight and it was his ability to outguess the rushing Eile that decided the battle.

W. J. Baker, of Chicago, was much impressed with the speed of the battle and voted in favor of the six-round game.

Frankie Howell stopped Sailor Kreiter in the first round of the second bout with a right to the body. The opener went to Sammie Skiger after two minutes of action in the first round. Jimmy Bradley took one to the stomach and passed out.

Jack Sharkey Praises Work of Jimmy Wilde

Jack Sharkey, the clever little New York bantam, who surprised by outpointing Jimmy Wilde in the Englishman's debut in Milwaukee not long ago, was in the city last night.

"Wilde is a great fighter," said Sharkey, "but does not seem to like a game boy. I know this much, that Wilde would be on his way home now if he could get his release from the International Sporting Club."

"He's a good boy and a gentleman in the ring. I'm strong for Wilde."

CONSIDER HEISMAN FOR PENN COACH Dr. Carl Williams Is Too Busy to Accept the Position, He Declares

Dr. Carl Williams, former captain and coach of Penn's football team, yesterday announced that he was not a candidate for the coaching position for 1920.

"My duties as a physician and my teaching at the University Medical School are so arduous that I could not think of undertaking to coach a university football team," said Doctor Williams.

Doctor Williams is the second Penn captain and coach to announce that he would not accept the post. Dr. Charles M. Wharton anticipated Williams by several weeks with a similar announcement.

Four men are now being mentioned at Franklin Field. They are Fowell, By Jackson, Bill Hollenbeck and Lon Jourdet. The first three men have been associated with football for almost twenty years. Jourdet, however, has devoted much of his time to basketball since leaving the gridiron. He is very popular with Penn students. He has brought two cage titles to Penn in the last four years.

Coach Heisman, of Georgia Tech, is a Penn graduate who has been under consideration by the football committee.

DEER HUNTERS WARNED New Jersey Official Tells Them to Get Fire Permits Trenton, Dec. 16.—Because of a greater number of deer hunters who will probably take advantage of the return to an open season of five consecutive days in New Jersey, State Fire Warden C. P. Wilber, connected with the State Department of Conservation and Development, called attention to the requirements of permits to build campfires in or near woods.

The brief season begins tomorrow. The practice of camping out during the night in order to get a good start before daybreak has in the past caused many gunners to unwittingly violate the forest fire law by building open fires without permits, which may be obtained free.

School Football Title at Stake Everett, Wash., Dec. 16.—The contract for the proposed football game between Tualuma, Ohio, and Everett High schools for the national prep. school championship has been signed. The game will be played here New Year's Day.

Joe Stecher Throws Outlin Springfield, Mass., Dec. 16.—Joe Stecher, of Dodge City, Neb., defeated John Olin, of New York, at wrestling last night in two falls in two minutes and thirty seconds.

INTERPRET RULINGS FOR CAGE CONTESTS

Meeting of Philadelphia Board of Approved Officials Also Is Held

MANY ARE ENLIGHTENED TO RESIGN POST Football Coach Says if Yale Is Not Satisfied He Will Step Down

Two affairs were held in this city yesterday, which bear a decided interest to the followers of collegiate and scholastic basketball—one the interpretive game at the West Philadelphia High School and the other the December meeting of the Philadelphia board of approved officials.

The interpretive game was between West Philadelphia and West Catholic High Schools. Time was called frequently to illustrate the foul and its penalty. Most of the explanations were on infringement familiar to all, but in every audience or group of spectators there is always one who may benefit from anything.

Numbers of students and second team players were enlightened considerably. Many out of town officials, coaches and players were present, and from time to time asked questions demanding an absolutely rigid interpretation of the rule so that in as much as a possible all will be of one mind.

It was announced that the high schools have adopted the rule whereby a player who has been taken from a game may not return to the game. The decision was made that each of four personal fouls may return once.

The meeting of the board of approved officials in the evening was more in the nature of routine business. Interesting discussion was heard on several topics pertaining to the game, but nothing of vital importance was adopted save the admission of women to the staff.

Noticeable fact was the growth of the board and its flourishing state due to the recognition given its worthy purpose—the stabilization of institutional basketball in Philadelphia and vicinity.

AL SHARPE OFFERS TO RESIGN POST Football Coach Says if Yale Is Not Satisfied He Will Step Down

New Haven, Conn., Dec. 16.—Goaded by incessant criticism of his football coaching this fall, Dr. Albert Hayes Sharpe, Yale's new athletic director, said last night: "If Yale alumni and undergraduates really attribute the loss of the Harvard and Princeton wins to my coaching, and want to bring Tad Jones back as head coach, I shall not demand that Yale carry out my three-year contract."

"If my work is unsatisfactory and there is a popular demand that I go, I will go. There has been enough talk that I was not working for the best interests of Yale and there was no harmony. There is too great a bridge between the academic and the scientific department. Yale lost its two biggest games because of lost playing."

Doctor Sharpe was asked to comment on the statement made last week by Trainer John Mack to the effect that when an eleven is on the one-year line and cannot score because of a missed signal, something is wrong. He answered: "The play that was called for was an off-tackle play and Braden, who took the ball, went through center."

"Then Braden disobeyed his signals?" "Either that, or he misunderstood them."

A Tale of Humor and Heroism, by Francis P. Duffy, Chaplain of "The Fighting 69th" (42d Division).

Father Duffy's Story

Father Duffy has told the outstanding padre's story of the war. His book is not merely the story of a regiment or a division. It is a glimpse into the hearts and souls of America's finest manhood.

Father Duffy knew and loved his men and they would have died with him and for him. From the moment of its call to arms, Father Duffy follows the story of the Sixty-ninth, from Camp Mills to the fields of France.

His pages bristle with names, with humorous stories, with heroic deeds. It is a book of the living and of the dead, a record which is likely to remain the most moving, the most brilliant padre's story of the war.

The book closes with a historical appendix by Joyce Kilmer and complete lists of Citations and Engagements. Father Duffy was awarded the Croix de Guerre by the French Government, and both the Distinguished Service Cross and the Distinguished Service Medal by our own Republic.

FOOTBALL GIVEN BOOST BY ROPER

Princeton Coach Tells Swarthmore Students the Benefit Thereof

Swarthmore, Pa., Dec. 16.—"Bill" Roper, famous Princeton football coach, gave a talk at Swarthmore College last night at the first of a night banquet of the year on the subject of football.

The unusual popularity of that sport this season he attributed to the fact that football is the most interesting sport in America, both from the standpoint of the player and those on the side.

The well-known coach accredited the first step toward making the sport safer to the late "Fody" Roosevelt, who, during the first year of his presidential administration, called together the coaches of Harvard, Princeton and Yale and set in motion proceedings which ultimately resulted in making football one of the cleanest and safest of American sports.

He went on to praise football, and declared it not merely a game, but an ancient institution. He declared it teaches more than any other sport and is a great training school for American manhood, since it makes physical fitness, besides teaching team work.

He concluded his talk with a great plea against professionalism, asserting that it has a demoralizing influence on the sport. Roper urged every man to do all in his power to combat the commercializing of football playing.

State Soccer Men Off State College, Pa., Dec. 16.—The Penn State soccer team left here at noon yesterday for the annual eastern trip, fourteen men accompanying Coach Crowell and Manager Hart. The eastern trip will include three games, the first being with Lehigh, at South Bethlehem, this afternoon. Swarthmore will be played at Swarthmore on Thursday, and after a rest on Friday, the state University of Pennsylvania players will be met on Franklin Field on Saturday afternoon.

SPORTS AMONG THE AMATEURS

The Pennsylvania Railroad Five has a strong team upon the floor this season. The forwards are Barlow and Kirkpatrick, formerly of the strong Groystock team, of the Eastern League. The center position is held by one of the best pivot men obtainable in Powell, formerly of Germantown. At guard there is Armstrong and Captain Brooks.

Charge Southerners With Playing Nesser Brothers on Team Center College, which created a stir in football circles by breezing through the season without a defeat, and running up big scores, is charged with playing professionals by an article printed in The Athlete, the student publication at West Virginia. The Morgantown institution was included in the list of Center victims.

The article in part follows: "Two men were hired to form a team. One was Moran, the coach, who came from Texas and has a line on good material there. The other was Jim Durfee, Columbus (Ohio) sportsman and referee. Moran went to Fort Worth and got five boys, including Robert Roberts. They were brought to Danville and were found wanting. They were not good enough. Then Durfee got in his work.

"James knew in Ohio the Nesser boys (there used to be nine of them), who were all good enough for professional teams and who were all ineligible for college play.

"Since all were ineligible, it was decided to play them under the names of the Texas students who lived so far away from home folk that no one was likely to discover the fraud."
